Highlights

- Laureate Prep is offered in partnership with the Museum of Nature & Science and will provide students with hands-on, in-museum lab experiences.
- Students will attend the exemplary-rated Peak Preparatory for high school.
- In its first year, Laureate will serve Kindergarten through 2nd grade students. The school will add to this each year, until the school ultimately grows into a K-8 school.
- School made possible through the generous donations of the Rees Jones Foundation, Michael & Susan Dell Foundation, TI Foundation and The M. R. & Evelyn Hudson Foundation.

Laureate Preparatory prepares K-8th grade scholars in Dallas to achieve advanced mastery of academic standards, to gain admittance to college, and to become responsible global citizens.

This is accomplished by:

- A highly structured setting
- Rigorous curriculum
- Extremely high academic and behavioral standards
- Constant use of data to drive instruction
- Staff and scholar adherence to the core values of: integrity, inquiry, choices, and reflection
- Direct engagement with the Museum of Nature & Science to support science and math curricula, and to provide a unique, real-world context for learning
