North Hills Preparatory to host Annual Golf Tournament April 30 at Riverchase

All proceeds from tournament will go toward much-needed upgrade of student computers on campus

IRVING, Texas (April 1) – Irving-based North Hills Preparatory, charter operator Uplift Education’s oldest campus, will tee-off its annual golf tournament at 2 p.m. on April 30, 2011, at Riverchase Country Club in Coppell, Texas. This year’s event will also include a dinner reception starting at 6 p.m. The goal of the event is to raise $10,000 for the purchase and upgrade of computers and technology upgrades for the students at North Hills Prep.

The golf tournament will be a four-person scramble, with prizes and awards presented at the dinner reception. The cost to register is $100 per person or $350 for teams of four. Dinner is included for golfers. Non-golfers can purchase dinner tickets for $20 that will also grant them full access to watch the tournament.

The golf tournament is sponsored by the Panther Dads Club, a volunteer organization of fathers who support the school by donating their time and resources throughout the year. To register for the tournament, purchase dinner tickets, or sign-up as a volunteer or sponsor, visit www.uplifteducation.org/nhpgolfsite or call Kelly McCombs at 972-501-0645 ext 3549.
